Con Amores, La Mi Madre

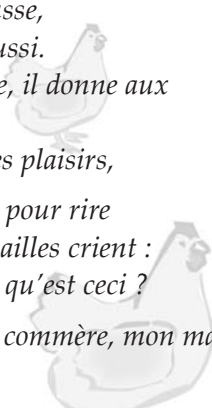

Juan de Anchieta (1450 – 1523)

Con amores, la mi madre, Con amores m'adormi. Así dormida soñaba, Lo qu'el corazón velaba, Qu'el amor me consolaba, Con más bien que merecí.	With love, dear mother, With love I fell asleep, Thus asleep I was dreaming What the heart was hiding That love comforted me, Better than I deserved.
Adormeciome el favor, Que amor me dio con amor, Dio descanso a mi dolor, La fe con que le serví.	Thus favoured I fell asleep, That love gave me lovingly, Gave my pain a rest, Because I served it faithfully.

Il Est Bel Et Bon

Pierre Passereau (c. 1495 – 1547)

Il est bel et bon commère, mon mari. Il est bel et bon bon bon bon bon commère.	He is handsome and good, my husband is! He is handsome . . .
Il était deux femmes toutes d'un pays.	There were two neighbor women in the country,
Disans l'une à l'autre : avez bon mari ?	One says to the other: Do you have a good husband?
Il est bel et bon commère, mon mari.	He is handsome . . .
Il ne me courousse, ne me bat aussi.	He doesn't make me cross, never beats me either,
Il fait le ménage, il donne aux poulaillies	He does the housework, he feeds the chickens,
Et je prends mes plaisirs,	And I take my pleasure!
Commère, c'est pour rire Quand les poulaillies crient : Petite coquette, qu'est ceci ?	Girlfriend! It's enough to make you laugh When the chickens cackle:
Il est bel et bon commère, mon mari.	Petite coquette, co co dac, what's this? He is handsome . . .

For the Four Winds

Lindsay Kesselman

There is room in me for the four winds,
The currents of time and place and people;
I will let them move me
And unclench my fist so that they may touch the heavens.

I will expand, my full heart
a pearl in a familiar cavern;
I will be lifted, weightless, until I know
the skies and the stars and the whispers.

L'eccho (The Echo Song)

Orlando di Lasso (1532 – 1594)

O la, o che bon eccho! Pigliamoci Piacere! Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha! Ridiamo tutti.	Oh what a lovely echo! Let's try it out. Pleased to meet you! Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha! Let's all laugh.
O bon compagno, che voi tu? Voria che tu cantassi una canzona. Perchè? Perchè sì? Perchè no? Perchè non voglio. Perchè non voi? Perchè non mi piace.	Fine companion, what do you want? I'd like you to sing a song. Why? Why should I? Why not? Because I don't want to. Why don't you want to? Cause I don't like it.
Taci dico! Taci tu, o gran poltron Signor sì! Or su non più. Andiamo, Addio, bon eccho! Rest' in pace! Basta!	Shut up, I say! You shut up, you big buffoon! Yes sir, Come on now, no more. Let's go, Goodbye, lovely echo! "Rest in Peace!" That's enough!

Thanks to our supporters!

High Spirits Choir is one of many arts organizations that recently lost provincial funding, which had for several years helped us maintain a balanced budget. No singer is ever turned away from the choir for financial reasons. Despite trimming our budget as much as possible, we still face a shortfall of thousands of dollars for our current fiscal year.

The businesses shown here have stepped forward to each sponsor a song in today's concert. Their generous support is deeply appreciated.

In addition, we would like to thank the many individuals who have made personal donations to pay for music scores, rehearsal hall rental and scholarships.
